DEPARTMENT OF LATIN

November 27, 1907.

Mr. Bauman L. Belden
Recording Secretary

Dear Sir.

Pardon my delay in replying to your favor of the 20th, notifying me of my election to membership in the American Numismatic Society. I have been confined to my bed with influenza for several days.

I accept with pleasure the honor of membership in the Society and enclose my cheque for twenty Dollars ($20—) with the request that it be transmitted to the Treasurer. Mr. Poillon told me that by joining now, my first year's dues would count for the year from January 1st 1908.

Very truly yours

George N. Olcott.
